Teacher Spotlight – Mr. Simmons

By Katie Glenn

What do you do here at Prairie Valley?

I teach English grades 6-11

Why did you choose to work here at Prairie Valley?

I had heard about how great PV is, and I was excited when a teaching position opened up.

What school did you graduate from?

Stephen F. Austin State

What are your hobbies?

Photography, swimming, hiking, and water sports

Tell us a little bit about yourself.

I am a freelance writer – author of 80+ technology books. I once even worked for Microsoft. I teach a couple of college level photography courses and enjoy taking nature photos, especially beach scenes and macro photography, such as bugs and small plants. I have a wife and two daughters. I enjoy working with my church, and Hawaii is one of my favorite places in the world.

9/11 Program

By Alley Hilton

At 8:30 a.m. on Monday, September 12, Mr. West called everyone to the flag pole. Mr. West, along with 5 students, gave a speech in front of the school. The students were Barbara Atteberry, Maddie Duck, Kelcy Oliver, Bailey Ralls, and Chris Reister. After everyone spoke, Kincaid, Alex, and Kurstin raised the flag. We had a moment of silence after the flag was raised, followed by moments of silence throughout the day at the times of significant 9/11 events.
